Dedication

Mr. R. D. Davis
Senior Class Sponsor

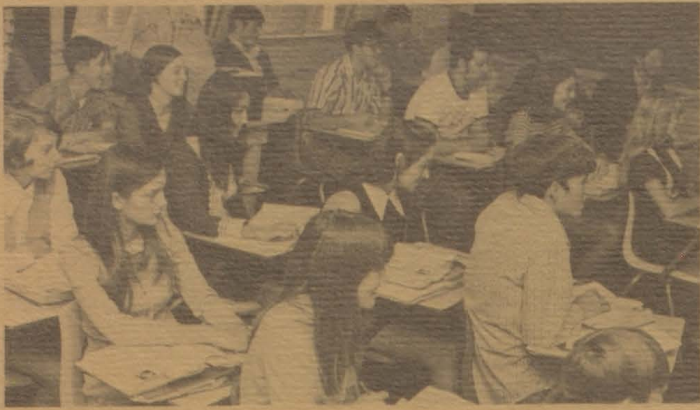

Mrs. Janet B. Faulkner
Senior Class Co-Sponsor

Influence is eternal and teachers affect eternity. A few guiding words in a time of confusion or an understanding glance in a moment of happiness can mold the thoughts of high school years and make our memories warmer. We would like to take this opportunity to thank those who helped us in our endeavors as a class by dedicating the 1971-72 "The Echo" to Mr. R. D. Davis and Mrs. Janet B. Faulkner.

Mr. & Mrs. Faulkner and Mr. & Mrs. Davis at the 1971 Junior - Senior Prom

Although school is a time for learning, there are always pleasant diversions to make the tasks of learning more enjoyable for all. In coming years these diversions will be among our fondest memories.

I CAN'T UNDERSTAND IT. SOMEONE HAS COMPLETELY FILLED MY OFFICE WITH JELLO.

Mrs. Katherine L. Reynolds

The first kindergarten class to be taught in Bland County began this year. The class is taught by Mrs. Katherine L. Reynolds with Mrs. Ruth Dalton serving as her aide. The class room is equipped and supported by Federal funds under the supervision of Mr. Kieffer Irvin, Federal Coordinator.

Due to the large number of children desiring to attend, two sessions were planned. The second group is to start on February 10, 1972.
