Kayla B.

These past 18 years have gone by so fast and you have grown into a beautiful young woman.

The prints you left on our hearts and continue to leave will be memories to cherish forever.

We were nervous when you started your first day of school because you were scared.

We were surprised when you buried a bad note from Pam Lambert in the backyard.

We were filled with joy, when you gave your chocolate Easter Bunny to a little boy that said the Easter Bunny had forgotten where he lived.

We yelled at you when you played little league basketball and scored for the other team

And smiled as we took you to your first dance and saw how excited you were.

We were nervous when you passed your test and received your driver's license.

We were appalled when you got a police escort home for speeding.

We were sad the first time you fell in love and got you heart broken.

We were proud as we watched you leave for your first prom.

We drew strength from you as we watched the team rally around a team mate suffering a great loss

And as we laughed at the stories Mama and Papa Bear told of you singing all the way to Richmond during the state playoffs.

Each of these moments, along with lasting friendships of classmates and teachers are a part of what made you, who you are.

Graduation can be a sad time as familiar scenes fade away.

No more slamming lockers, echo's of laughter, or footsteps in the hall.

But as you take your final walk, don't be nervous or cry.

Always thanking God you made it, now spread your wings and fly.

We love you so much!

Congratulations to you and the entire class of 2010!

Dad, Mom, and Tristen

Thomas Lee Wilson

Heck, Heck, What a Redneck!!

Thomas, Thomas, He's the Man

Mr. FFA, County of Bland.

Voted biggest Redneck is no surprise

He has been a Redneck since he arrived.

President of FFA gave him a lot of clout

He helped the others know what it was all about.

In 2007 he was FFA Lumberjack of the Year

The log roller gave him a big cheer.

School will not be the same

When this guy is out of the game.

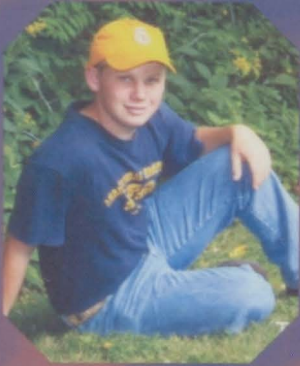

Since deer hunting, coon hunting are fun.

Any parent would be proud of this son.

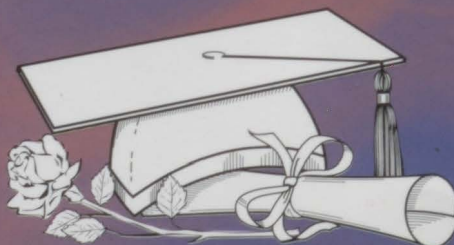

by Dr. O. J. Campbell

We love you and are very proud of you!!!

Mom, Sissy, and John

Best of Luck Class of 2010

In Memory
of
Coach Dennis Grindstaff

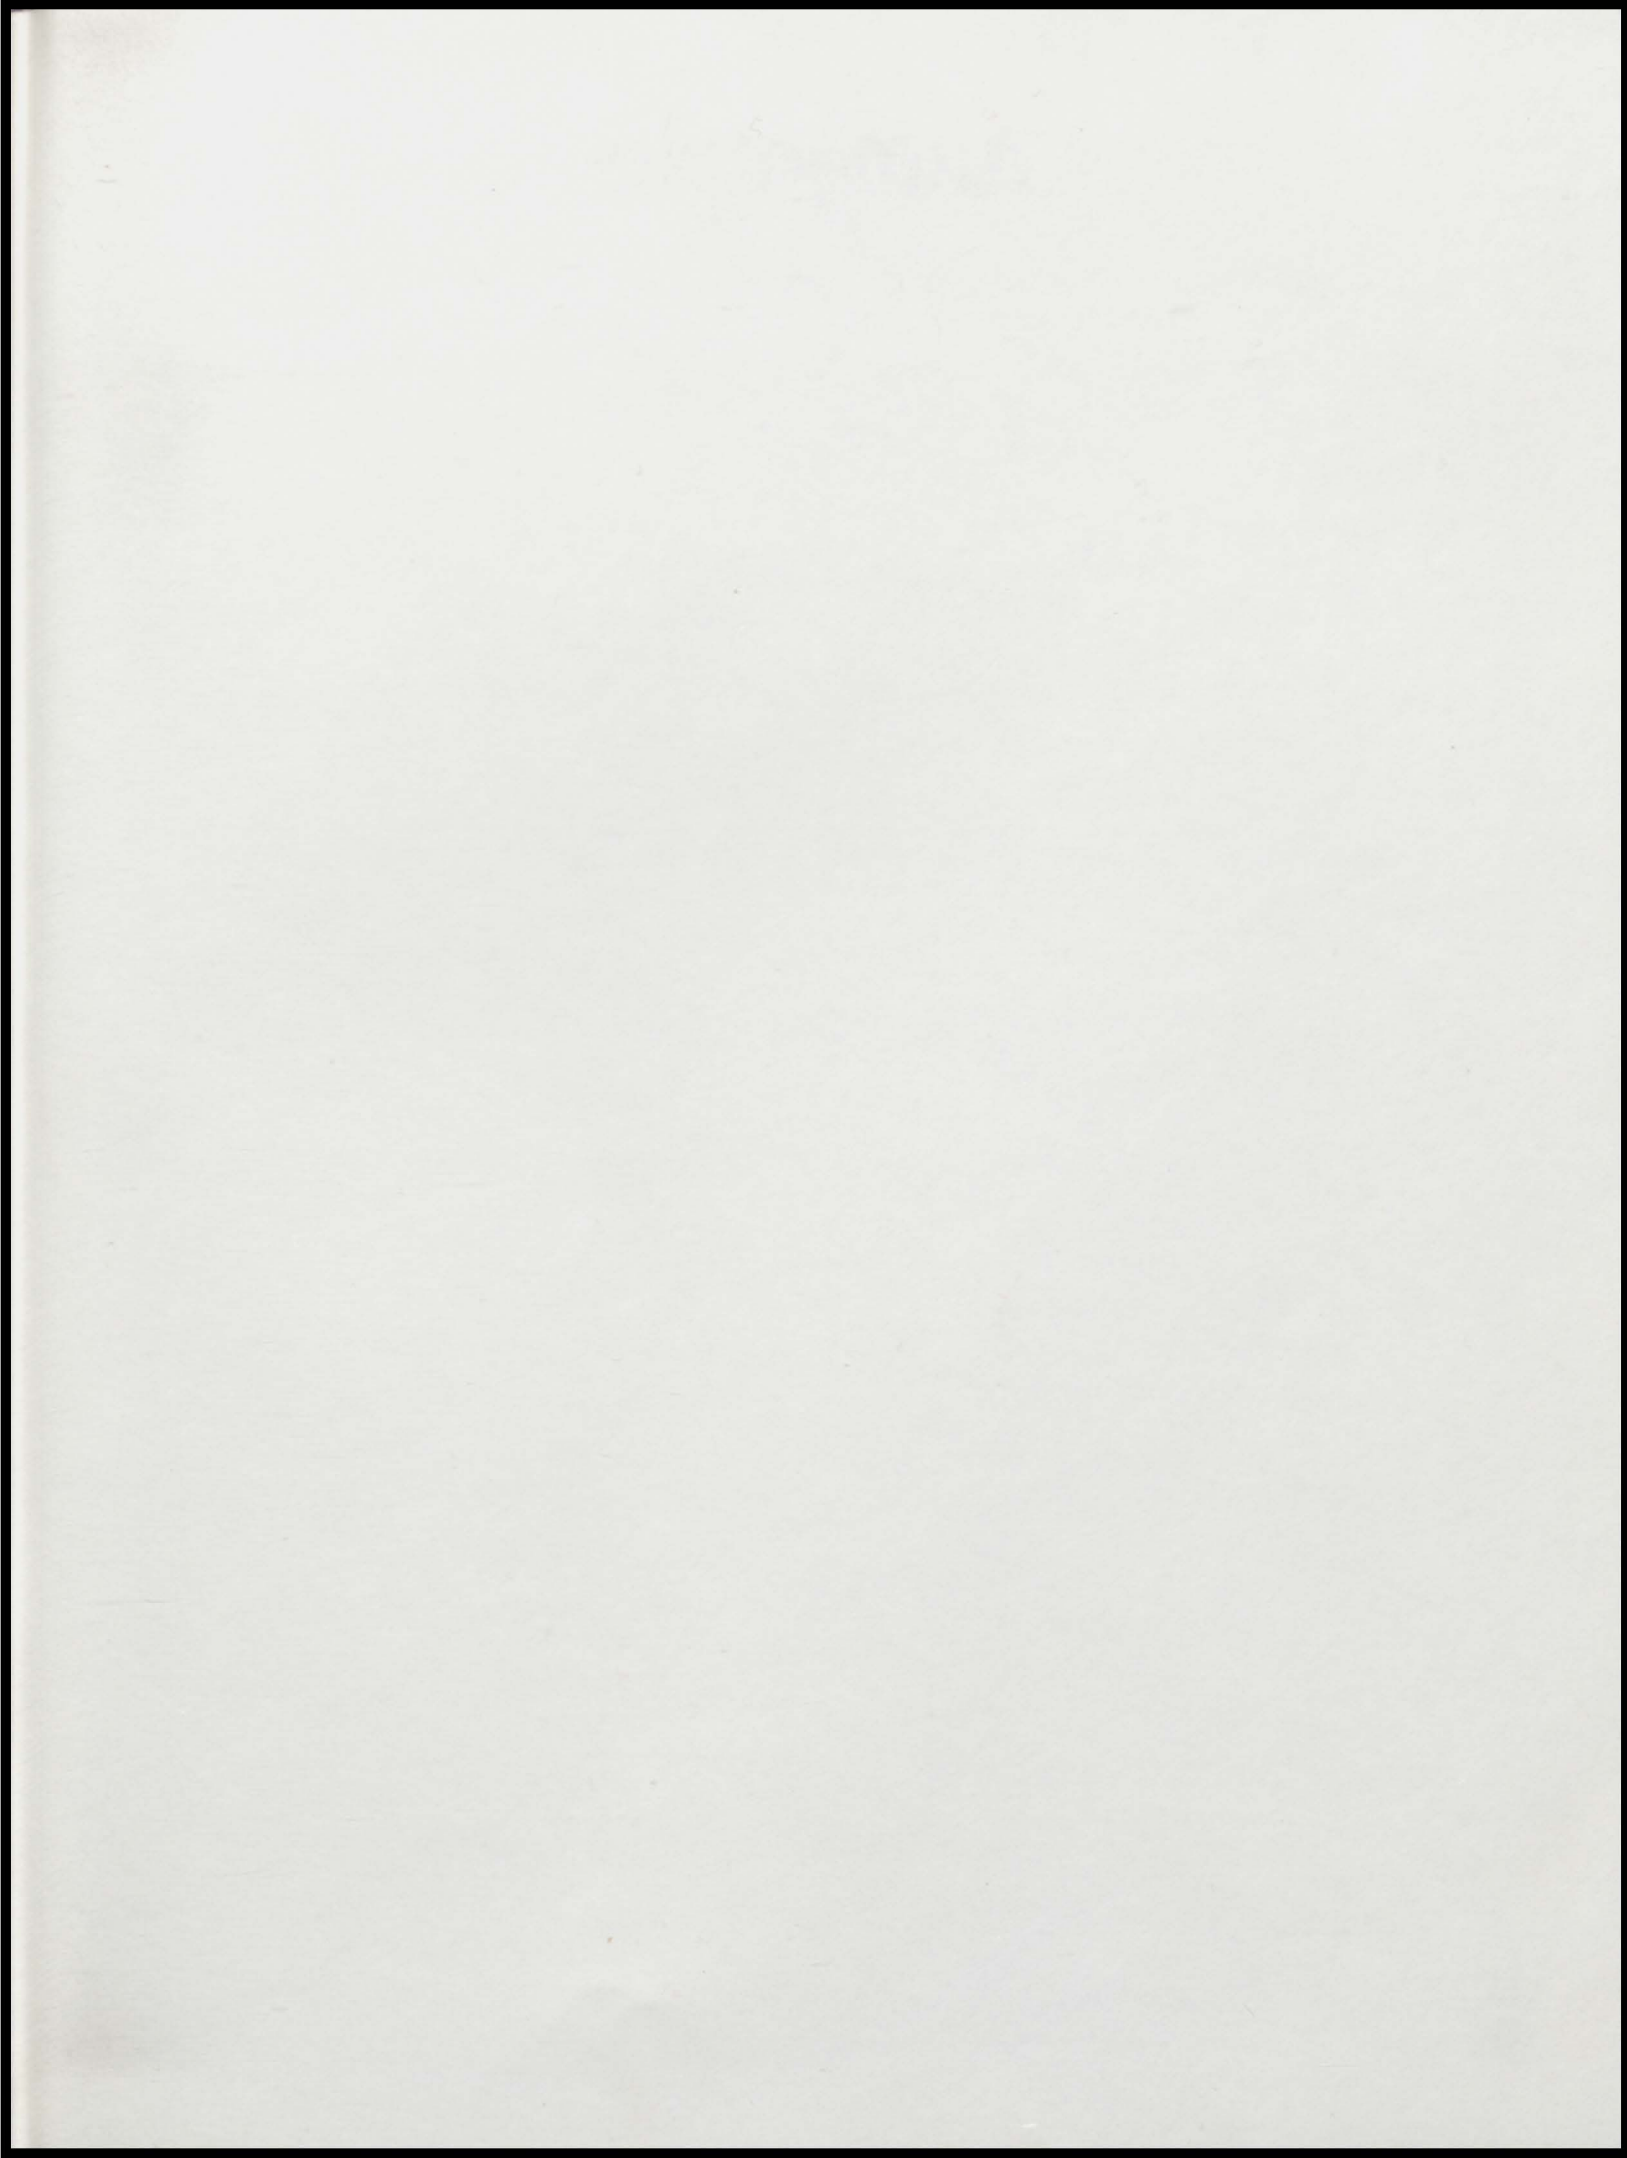

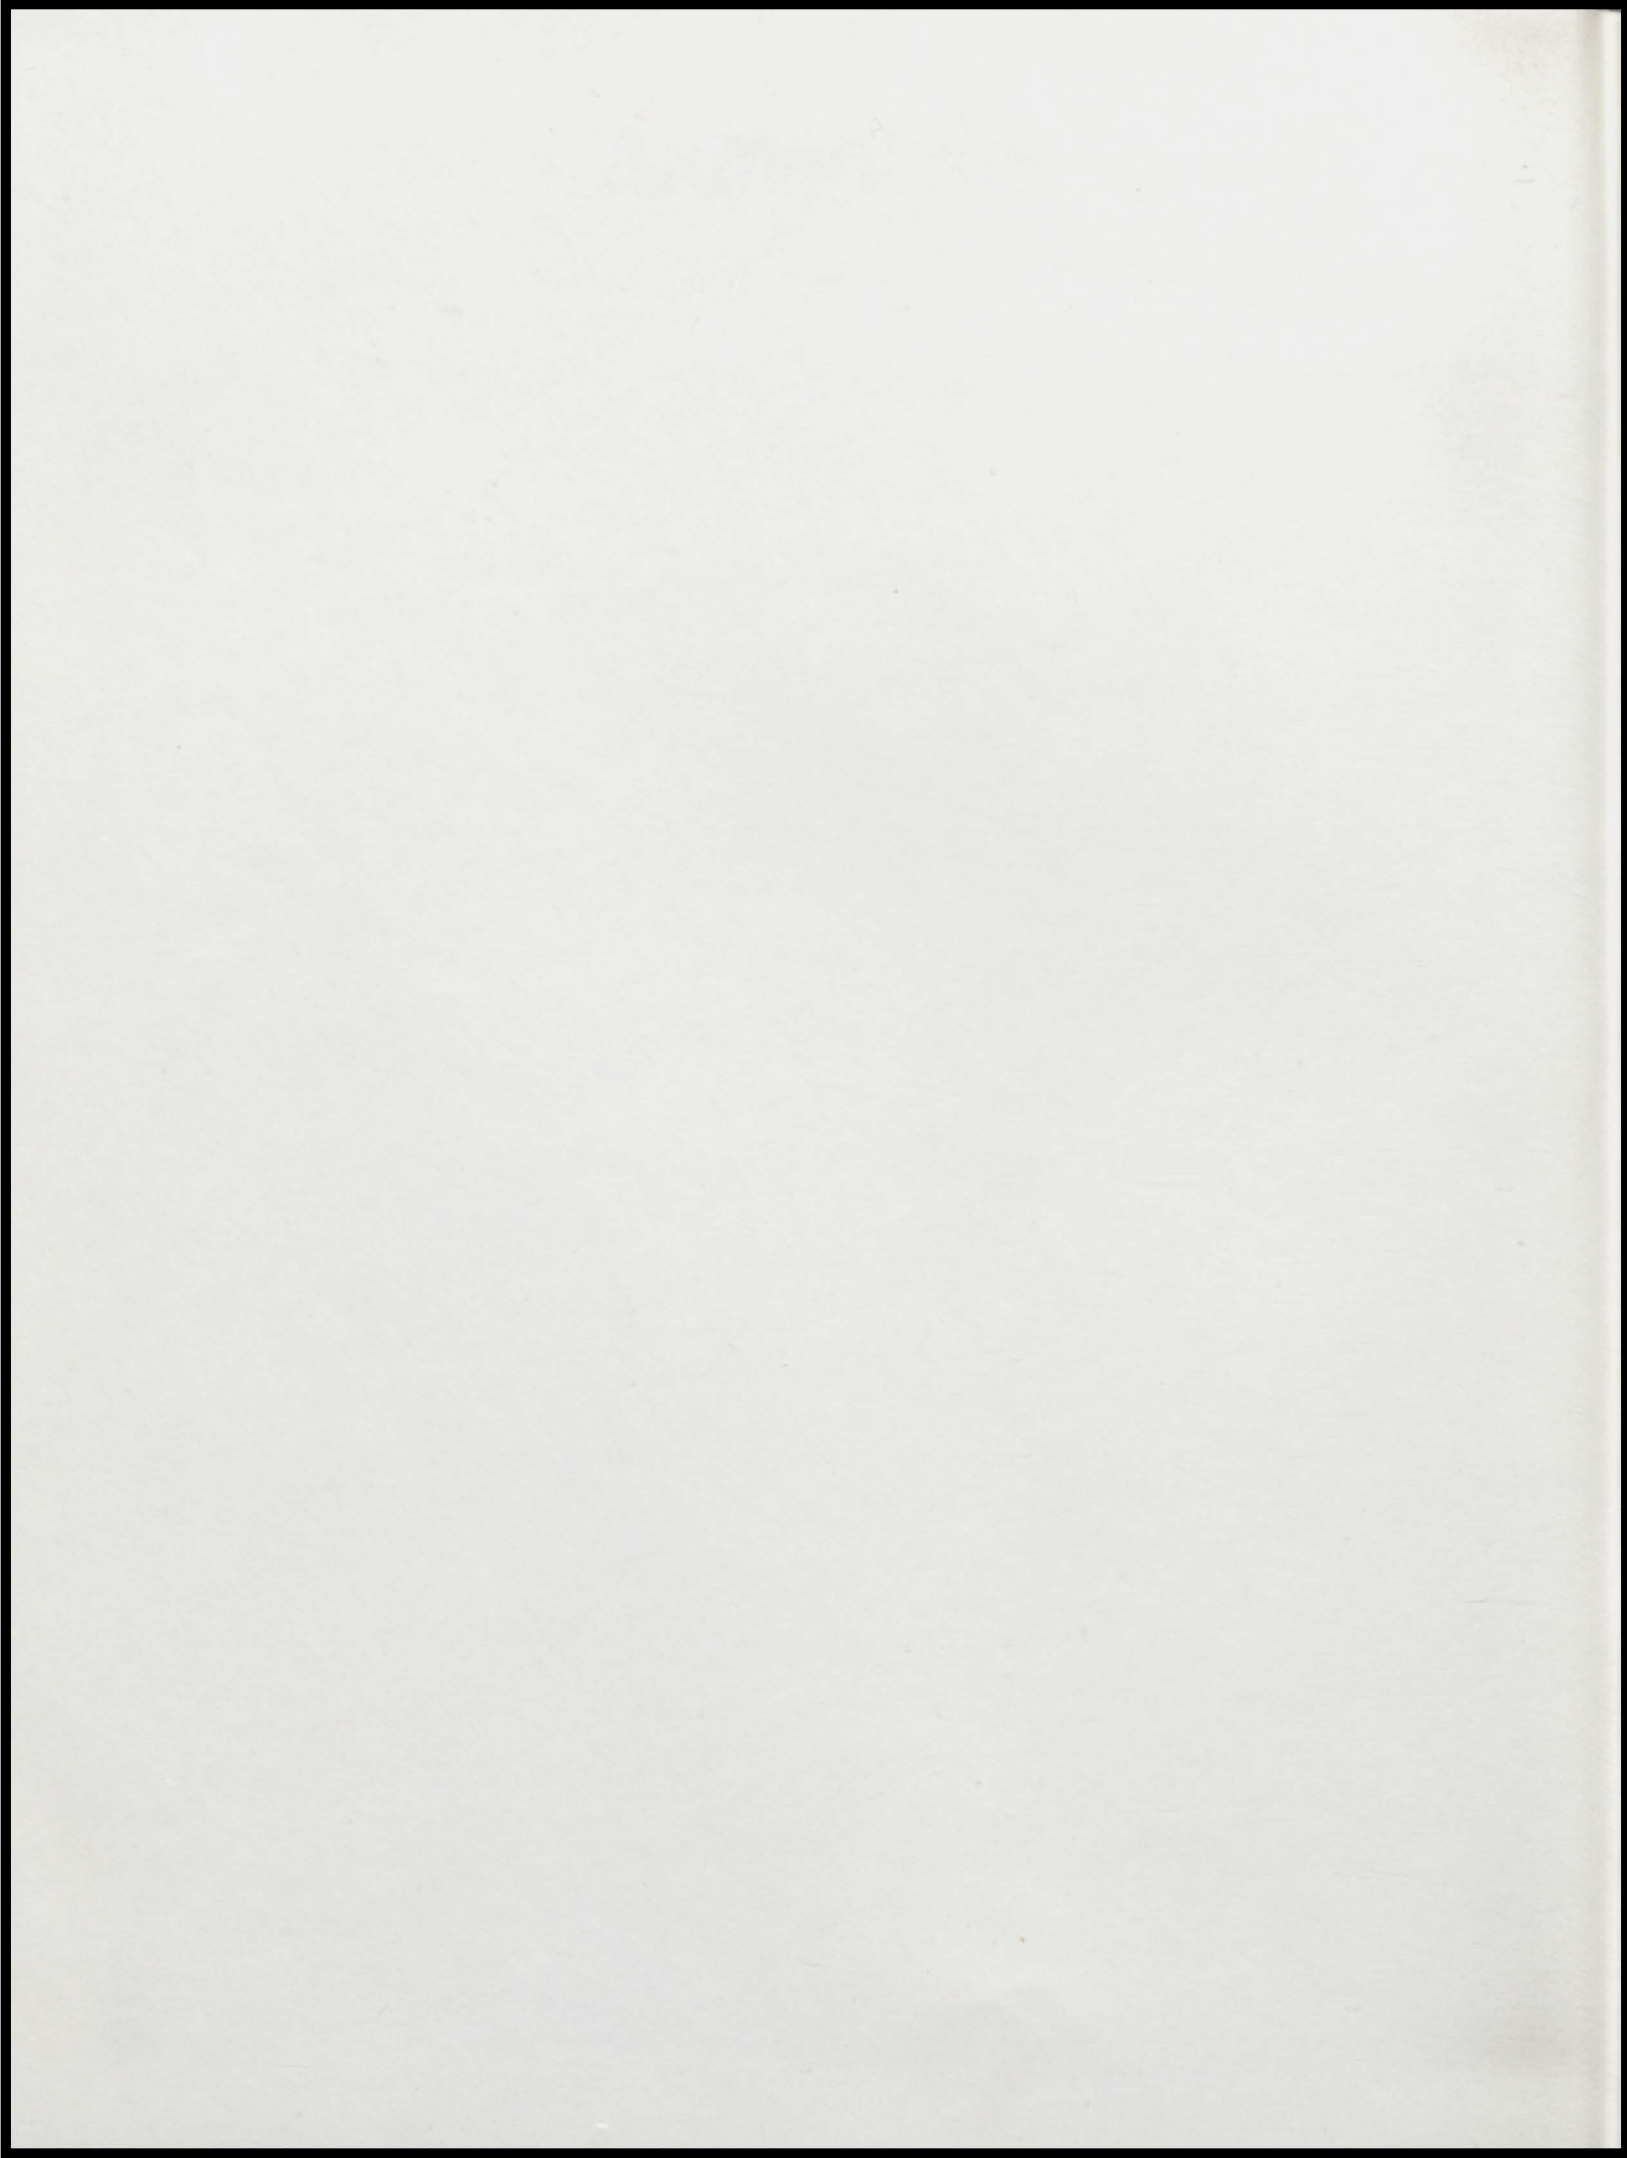

Mr. Grindstaff began teaching history and government at Bland High School in 2005. He was more widely known in the community as "Coach G". He was an assistant football coach for the Bland County Bears football team. "Coach G" loved his football players and the students at Bland High School. He was always ready to lend an ear and give advice or tell a story. He was one of those people who never met a stranger. The faculty, staff, and student body will miss his weather predictions and friendly disposition.
