Last Will and Testament

We, the seniors of nineteen hundred fifty-five, being of sound mind and strong temper will our worldly possessions to the following:

To the Juniors we leave the right to the title of "Dignified Seniors."

We leave our ability to throw B.B. shots to the sophomores.

To the freshmen, we will our desks, hoping they will stay in them better than we have.

We will all of our worthless possessions to the school.

To the faculty, we leave a month's vacation in Bermuda to relieve them of their worries.

Wesley Wilson and Frank Cassell will their basketball ability to Johnny Clemons and Jerry Lindamood.

J. C. Dillow bequeaths his love for Hollybrook to Vernon Stowers.

Mae Hancock and Jean Hayton will their love for jeeps to whom it may concern.

Dean Kirk leaves his height and his curly hair to Lewis Umbarger.

Andrew Hall wills his calm ways and his ability to control his temper to Cleveland Kirk, hoping he will use them to the best advantage.

G. L. Hubble leaves his height and bench warming position on the ball team to Noel Atwell.

Larry Neel wills his ability to skip study hall to Andrew Cassell.

Butchie Barger bequeaths her mischievous ways to Bobby Lee Davis.

Janice Lindamood wills her ability to get along with the teachers to the Ceres Red Coats.

Shirley Groseclose wills her ability to get along with Waddle Town boys to Doris Hancock.

Arnold Compton bequeaths his love for Saturday night to Don Carter.

Dean Tibbs wills his love for Louise Ingram to Marvin Hayton.

June Ellen Atwell bequeaths her love for Bland boys, with the exception of one, to Shirley Tibbs and Phyllis Patrick.

Archie Atwell wills his ability to argue with the teachers to Bruce Repass.

Richard Ingram wills his ability to be smart in government class to Jean Cassell.

I hereby fix my signature to this our last will and testament on this third day of June, nineteen hundred fifty-five.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The history of the United States is a story of growth and change. From the first settlers to the present day, the nation has evolved through various stages of development. The early years were marked by exploration and the establishment of colonies. The American Revolution led to the birth of a new nation, and the subsequent years saw the expansion of territory and the growth of industry. The Civil War was a pivotal moment in the nation's history, leading to the abolition of slavery and the strengthening of the federal government. The 20th century brought significant social and economic changes, including the rise of the industrial revolution and the emergence of the United States as a global superpower. Today, the United States continues to play a leading role in the world, facing new challenges and opportunities.
