“THE DAWNING OF A NEW ERA”

Rogahi-1980
Volume XXVIII
Rocky Gap High School
Rocky Gap, Virginia 24366
Tammy Pennington, Editor-in-Chief

Today

So here hath been dawning
Another blue day:
Think, wilt thou let it
Slip useless away.

Out of eternity
This new day is born;
Into eternity,
At night, will return.

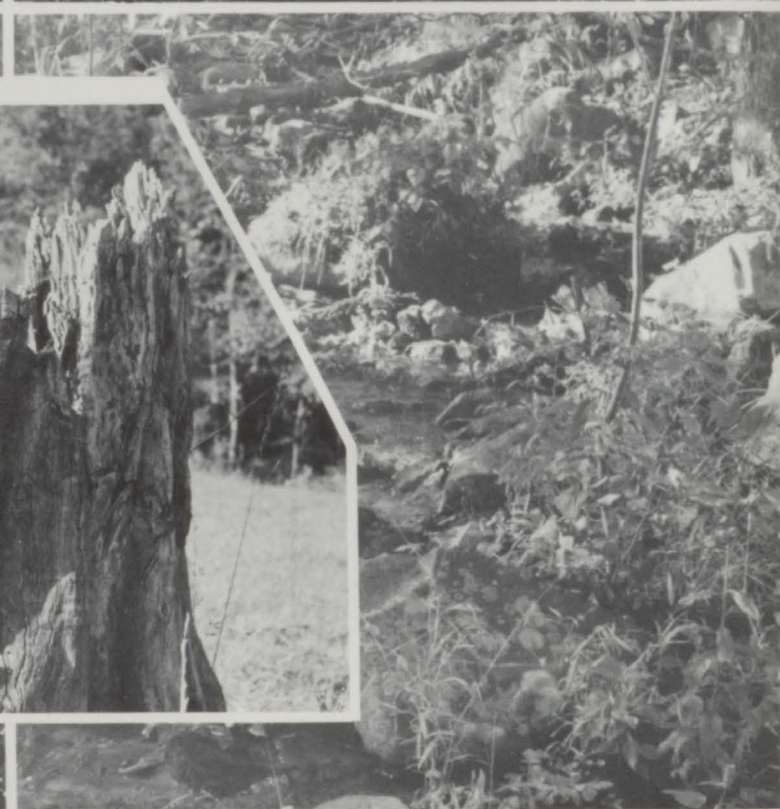

Behold it aforetime
No eye ever did:
So soon it forever
From all eyes is hid.

Here hath been dawning
Another blue day:
Think, wilt thou let it
Slip useless away.

Thomas Carlyle
(DOORWAYS TO POETRY, by Ward Staufer, 1938)

"Naw, I'll just sit here."

"Hold the note THIS long."

"Mr. Sink, I'm a busy semi-gifted Senior with better things to do — so I'm only gonna explain this once more!"

"I can also teach and drive without looking."

"Please! Times are hard— I can get a nickel for this bottle . . ."

No, Clint, MR. BIRD is your English teacher this year."

"Maybe my driving students 'll see this and keep in the right lane this good . . ."

Learning to do, doing to learn . . .

A black and white photograph of a starburst or nebula in space. The central feature is a bright, irregularly shaped cloud of light, possibly a starburst or a nebula, with a complex, multi-lobed structure. The background is dark, filled with numerous small, distant stars. The overall composition is centered and occupies most of the frame. At the bottom, the word "GRADUATION" is written in a stylized, blocky, white font.

Look what the army did to that poor boy.

I didn't think all that hair was for real.

This place is driving me mad.

Surprise! It's Candid Camera.

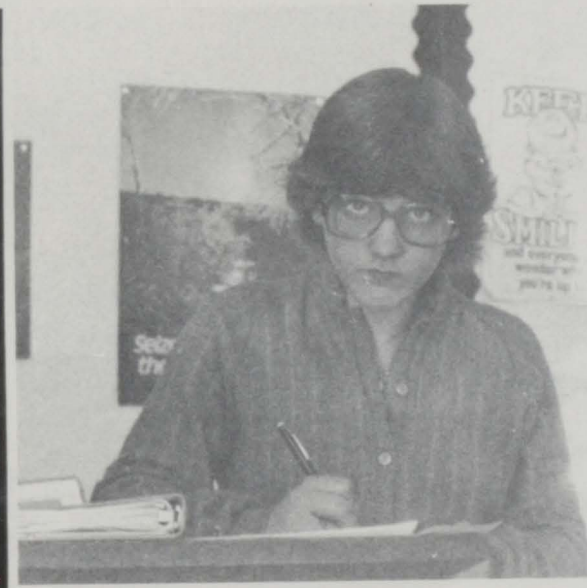

There's no privacy anywhere.

Hey Nancy, What's number 4?

Got ya!

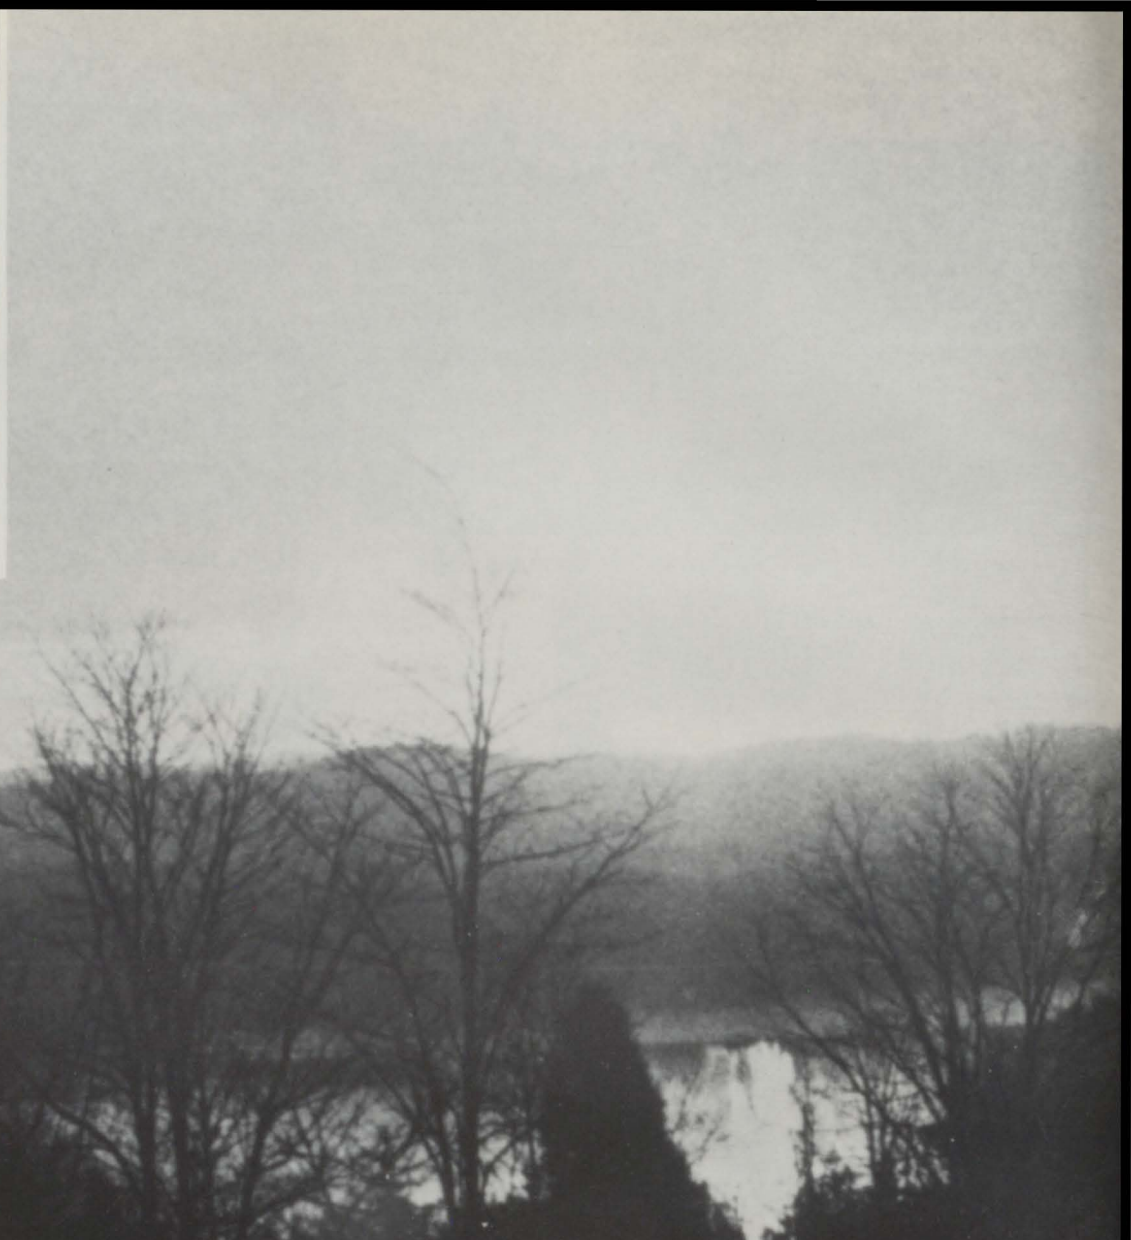

Don't interrupt me, can't you see I'm busy?

What's wrong with this thing?

The Chosen One

The clouds parted, heaven shone brightly and accepted another chosen one into its wonderland, the one who left this creation of God and joined the unknown that each of us yearn to understand. Lucky is she who has been adopted by our superior and given everlasting life.

The sunset of this life or any life brings about the dawning of a transaction that we mortals have been unable to master or interpret. Being mortals, death, or eternal rest, is inevitable to all of us, and a thing of immeasurable sadness.

Jamie, to you we pray for peace and live in hopes that we will be reunited in the place you have come to know. We that knew and loved you wait restlessly for that second gathering of which we have much faith in. Until that time, one by one we shall someday come to be with you.

BETA AWARDS

The Beta Awards are presented by the Senior and Junior Beta Clubs. To receive a Beta Award you must have at least a 95 overall average for the year. The first time you achieve this, you receive a letter. For each successful year after that, you receive a bar. A graduating senior, if he has received a letter and a bar, receives a star.

I DARE YOU AWARD

WINNERS

Tammy Pennington, Herschel Blessing

Each year a book is presented to two students to encourage these students, and others in the years to come, to fully develop their potential talents and to reach out as leaders in fields of service and good citizenship. This award is chosen by the high school faculty on the basis of leadership and character of each student.

DAR AWARD

Herschel Blessing

The contest is open to boys and girls in the senior classes of accredited public and private high schools in good standing with the State Boards of Education. The student selected as the school's "DAR Good Citizen" must be a citizen of the United States of America and have the qualifications of LEADERSHIP - which includes personality, self-control, ability to assume responsibility; DEPENDABILITY - which includes cooperation, courtesy, consideration of others; PATRIOTISM - which includes unselfish interest in family, school, community and nation, to an outstanding degree. The senior class elected three seniors having these qualifications and from the three, the high school faculty selected one to be the school's "DAR Good Citizen." The local Winner is entered in the state contest.

February 5, 1980

ROCKY GAP: Since the beginning of the current basketball season (November 30, 1979) many words have been written about the above pictured team and their gym. In the pre-season standings, the Roanoke Times Sports Department selected this team to finish no higher than fourth in the Mountain Empire District right behind Auburn, Shawsville, and Independence; however, this team has burst many a bubble as they clicked off win after win.

	HOME	AWAY
The Auburn Eagles were electrocuted.	90-77	60-59
The Shawsville Shawnees were scalped.	83-70	65-61
The Independence Blue Devils were Beheaded.	89-64	62-55
The Fort Chiswell Pioneers were pickled.	?????	71-59
The Bland Rockets were rejected.	75-52	?????
The Fries Wildcats were walloped.	92-58	51-37
The Mount Rogers Rockets were repelled.	96-50	88-57

On Friday, February 1, in Riner VA, home of the Auburn Eagles, this team captured the Mountain Empire District regular season championship and possess an unsurpassed record of 18-0. Coach Puckett's Eagles are talented, unselfish team members who utilize smart passing, constant team movement and a multitude of defenses which keeps the opponent constantly bewildered. The Eagles are led by Super-Center Kenny Klimaitis, playmaker Tony Brizendine, the fine inside power of Herschel Blessing, quick, defensive Rich Hankins and the alert, talented Mark Willis. These fine players are backed by the excellent abilities of Gary Morehead, Jeff Lambert, Ronnie Martin, Darren Walker, Tim Havens, Roger Faulkner and Barry Bradshaw.

Daily Telegraph Sports Writer Tom Wall had this to say after the Auburn game at Rocky Gap: "Puckett's birds acted like swarming, hungry, vicious buzzards as they defrocked, defeathered, dismantled, and totally, ruthlessly, dissected the Auburn birds as calmly and as professionally as a Bellevue surgeon."

It's obvious to the spectator that this team is well-coached, well-organized, and well-disciplined. Currently, the Rocky Gap Eagles are ranked seventh in Timesland — the only Group A school in the top ten.

Unfortunately, our yearbook must be sent to the publisher; and, therefore, we cannot write the end to this great beginning.

YOU NEEDED ME

I cried a tear-You wiped it dry
I was confused-You cleared my mind
I sold my soul-You bought it back for me
And held me up and gave me dignity
Somehow you needed me

You gave me strength-To stand alone again
To face the world-Out on my own again
You put me high upon a pedestal
So high that I could almost see eternity
You needed me

And I can't believe it's you,
-I can't believe it's true
I needed you and you were there
And I'll never leave,-why should I leave
I'd be a fool-Cause I've finally found someone who really cares

You held my hand-When it was cold
When I was lost-You took me home
You gave me hope-When I was at the end
And turned my lies-Back into truth again
You even called me friend

You needed me, you needed me
You needed me, you needed me.

BLAND COUNTY FIELD DAY

Congratulations Seniors of 1980
From the Staff of the Bland County Medical Clinic

Pictured above are students and chaperones enjoying the Athletic events of the field day activities on the fair grounds. The agony of defeat is expressed by some while the joy of victory is found on the faces of others.

Giver of life and happiness,
Shower your life on this soul.
Propose each of us togetherness,
And accompanying death at our last toll.
In our darkest hour set forth your glow,
And hold onto like you'll never let go.
Believe these few words,
For like a river they always will flow.
