SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the 1987 Senior Class of Rocky Gap High School, being of sound mind and body, declare this to be our Last Will and Testament and revoke all former wills.

I, James Atwell, will my parking place on the school parking lot to anyone who wants it.

We, Darren Bailey and Kevin Lawson, will the ability to drive Mr. Guthrie crazy for three years to any earth science student brave and dumb enough to handle it.

I, Lisa Bowling, will my long luscious mane of red hair to Pat Sutphin and Brady Lewis, and to Kelly I will my undying gratitude for putting up with me.

I, Tracy Burton, will a tenth of my hair to Tom Cromer so that we may both have a full head of hair.

I, Julie Butt, will all my love to Phillip.

I, Julia Carter, will my spot on the cheerleading squad to anyone who tries out and makes it.

I, Denny Clevinger, will my pink shirt to Greg Stover.

We, Lisa Conley, Lisa Cox, Andrea Thompson, and Michelle Williams, will our ability to play basketball and to learn the plays to Gerry Helbert.

I, Grady Davidson, will my powerful sleeper-hold to Brian Sink.

I, Kermit DeHart, will my ability to kill a groundhog to Brian Sink.

I, Jeff Dunnack, will this and that to these and those.

I, Nancy Gibson, will my ability to get through high school with decent grades without being an athlete to anyone who can handle it.

I, Regina Hall, do not will, but honor my brother Travis for his patience.

I, Amy Hendren, will my ability to smile through whatever I face to Lisa Blessing.

I, Jeff Hoosier, will nothing to nobody.

I, Penny King, will my ability to stay out of trouble to Calvin King. May he try hard to put it to good use.

I, Todd Kinser, will my name "Little Man" to Calvin King.

I, Tammy Lee, will my ability to cause trouble and never get caught to Darla Anderson.

I, Brady Lewis, will my flattop to anyone tough enough to take it.

I, Ricky Looney, will everything I have ever had to no one.

I, Steven Moses, will my ability to put up with Coach Cormany to all up-coming players.

I, Penny Myers, will my ability to make time to read romance novels to Laura Harman.

I, David Parlier, will my ability to pass, after goofing off five six weeks and studying one, to Lewis Harris.

I, Scott Puckett, will my great driving ability to Tom Cromer.

I, Christine Radford, will all my love to John Kidd.

I, Kelly Ratliff, will my love and friendship to my other half, Lisa, and may she continue her success as "Rose."

I, Larry Sarver, will my ability to sit in agriculture and listen to Mr. Thompson to anyone who can handle it.

I, Robin Stowers, will my ability to smile every day to anyone to Janice Ball.

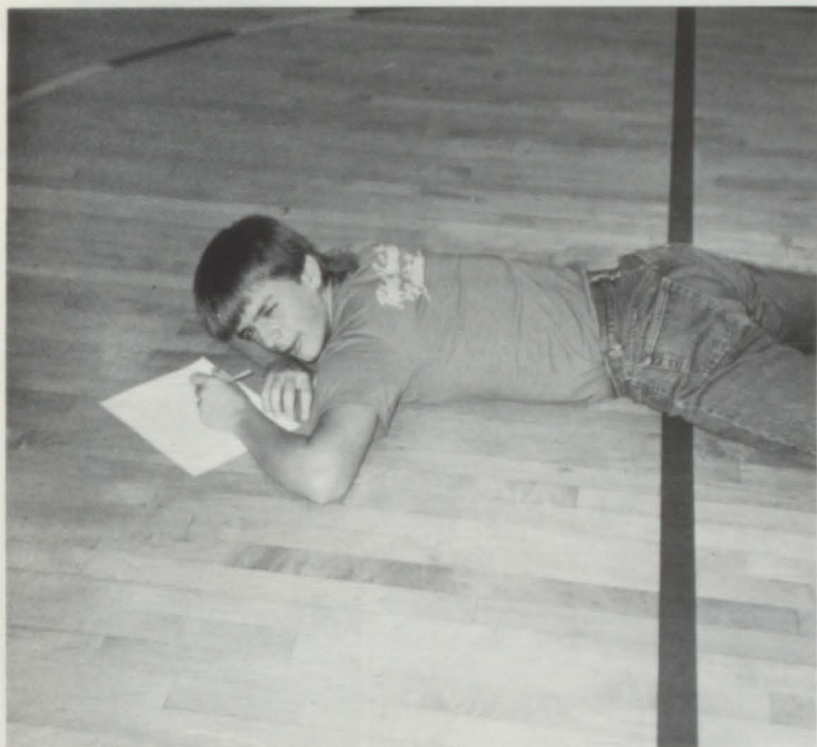

I, Patrick Sutphin, will my haircut to Tom Cromer and may the fans yell out "GI Joe" to him when he runs up and down the ball court.

I, Tammy Tolbert, will my ability to fall in love and be happy to Tricia Cahill.

We, Stacy Viers and Mark Wilburn, will our apologies to Lisa Conley, Michelle Williams, and Lisa Tolbert's sister, Christy, for planting mice in their lockers in 1984.

I, Mark Wilburn, will my superb driving ability to next year's seniors. I hope you will have as much fun and luck as I did on the day I was supposed to have my senior pictures made.

THE JOURNEY OF A CHAMPION

Dedicated, Talented, and Awesome

THE JOURNEY OF A CHAMPION

Dedicated, Talented, and Awesome

When Rocky Gap Basketball fans reminisce and bestow accolades on the cage stars of the past, they may recall many fine players. In the late 50's, there was a kid they called "Cousy" who handled the ball like his protege and would often play music on the cotton strings from 30' plus. In the mid-60's, a bunch of kids who had a rather inauspicious season caught fire when that "second season" began and marched into the Tech Coliseum and returned with Rocky Gap's only State Championship Banner.

The 70's and 80's brought a number of fine big men who played the game with skill and heart. In the past decades, many a fine cager has entertained and endeared us to the green and white.

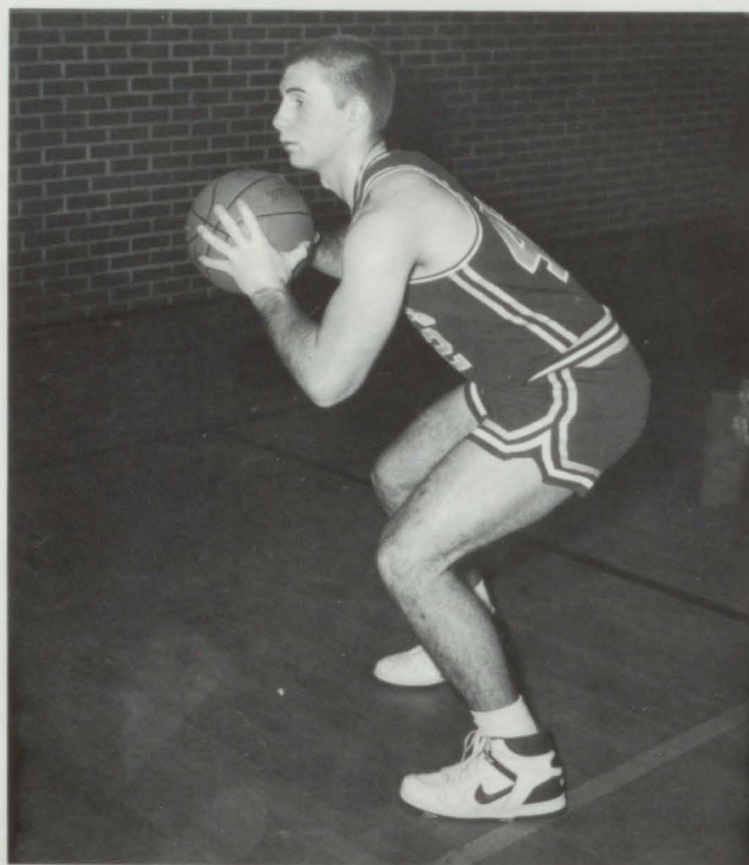

The mid-80's has delivered yet another talent. Some players work to be great. Some are just born to be great.

Patrick Sutphin is perhaps the most physically talented athlete to even compete at Rocky Gap. He may be listed 6'1"; but from the bottoms of his bare feet to the top of his shaved head he stands 5'9". His shoulders are wide and his hands are large, but it is his "wheels" that make him special. He can take one step and wrap both hands around the rim. Pat seems to glide in the open floor changing directions and dodging defensive bodies left and right. When suddenly he turns on the afterburners, ambitious defensive players have been known to be left on their "backside." When he rocks on his pivot foot and fires his "J" from 20', one cannot help but be impressed by the effortlessness by which he shoots the basketball. In a coach's jargon, Patrick Sutphin is truly "A Player."

The adjectives, dedicated, talented, and awesome, adequately describe the athletic prowess of our own superstar, Pat Sutphin. He is a stupendous individual both on and off the basketball court.

By — Charles E. Puckett, Principal

When
tomorrows become todays . . . and future expectations
become realities — graduation, a job,
college, a home — you assume new responsibilities.

Just as we do. Because when customers need electric service, we are obligated to provide it.

And we always knew that you and your classmates might one day be our customers. That's why we started planning for today ten years ago, so that we could provide electricity for the lifestyle you choose.

We hope we can supply electricity for all your tomorrows, too.
